SYNOD 2020

Archdiocese of Liverpool

Becoming the Church we are called to be

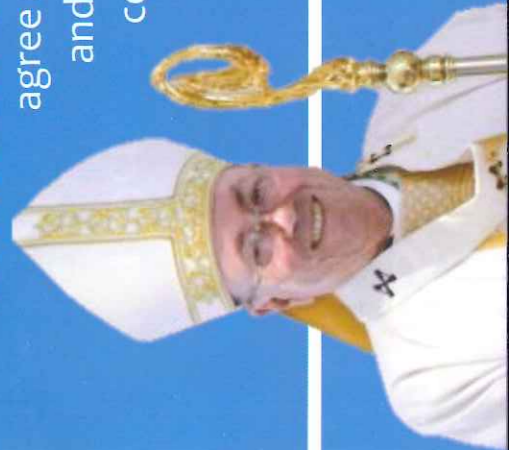

A Synod for the Archdiocese of Liverpool

It is a long established practice in the Church to use the term 'Synod' for decisive meetings at significant times where members of the Church come together to review one or more issues and make decisions.

Over fifty years after the Second Vatican Council and in view both of the multiple challenges facing us as well as the opportunities that contemporary cultural changes afford us, we are at a significant moment in the history of our Archdiocese.

There is clear duty on us to discern carefully together what the Spirit is saying to the Church in the Archdiocese of Liverpool and agree on common goals and actions for the coming years.'

Malcolm McMahon OP
Archbishop of Liverpool

When will the Synod happen?

The Synod day itself will be in October 2020, but our participation in the journey to that day will determine what emerges from Synod 2020.

Who is involved?

Everyone is invited to take part – people, priests, deacons, religious together with Archbishop Malcolm.

Have other dioceses held Synods?

A number of dioceses throughout the world have held Synods in recent years. Search the web for:

Prayer

A year of prayer leading to the Eucharistic Congress: 'Focusing our gaze firmly on Christ is an excellent place to begin our own journey towards Synod 2020' – Archbishop Malcolm

The Synod process begins by listening to the people of God. A Synodal Church is a Church which listens. The path of Synodality is the path God expects of His Church in the third millennium.

Our Synod Journey.....

The word 'Synod' means 'together on the road'. Through baptism, as members of the Church, the light of Christ sends us out into the world to live and spread the Good News. Our Synod journey gives us an opportunity to discern together how we might best remain faithful to that today: becoming the Church we are called to be.
