

Quality Texts

Key Vocabulary

past	Things that have already happened
present	Things that are happening now
future	Things that will be happening
Timeline	A sequence of change

History Skills

- I can talk about how I have changed
- I can use the vocabulary past, present and future
- I can talk about similarities and differences between me and my peers

Enquiry Questions

- How was I different in the past?
- How have I changed?
- What can I do now that I couldn't when I was a baby?
- What will I be able to do in the future?

Sticky Knowledge

- The past refers to events that have already taken place
- The present refers to events that are happening now.
- The future refers to events that will be happening
- Everyone is special and unique with all different qualities.
- As we grow we develop and change.

How have I changed?

Stimulus

Key Vocabulary

change	How something becomes different same	Alike, not different different	Not the same as another

History Skills

I can talk about how things have changed and are the same

I can talk about similarities and difference

I can sequence toys from old to new

Sticky Knowledge

- I can talk about toys and what we do with them
- I can talk about baby, toddler and children's toys
- I can recognise similarities and differences between toys
- I can talk about how toys are the same and have changed
- I can talk about toys that my family played with

Enquiry Questions

- What are toys and why do we have them?
- What toys did I play with when I was a baby?
- What toys did I play with when I was a toddler?
- What do I play with now?
- Can I order the baby, toddler and now toys?
- What toys did my mum and I play with?

Baby toy

Toddler toy

Toys I play with now

Quality Texts

Key Vocabulary

Queen/King	A ruler of our country
Crown	Made out of gold or silver and decorated with precious jewels
Royal Palace	The Queen's/King's house
Coronation	The ceremony of crowning a king or queen

History Skills

I can recognise Queen Elizabeth II and King Charles III

I can describe what a crown is and explain why kings and queens wear them

I know what happens during a coronation

Enquiry Questions

1. Why do people wear hats?
2. What is a crown and who wears one?
3. What happens at a coronation?
4. What historic landmarks will we see on a sightseeing tour of London

Sticky Knowledge

- People wear different hats because of the weather, their religion, jobs or special occasions
- A King or a queen wears a crown to show how important they are.
- A crown is gold or silver and it has many precious jewels
- At a coronation the crown is placed on the head of the king or queen.
- Queen Elizabeth's II/King Charles III royal palace is called Buckingham Palace

King Charles III from a young boy to now