

What should I already know?

- The names of some toys I play with.
- Children played with toys in the past.

Sticky Knowledge

- The year I was born.
- Toys I play with will change as I get older.
- First teddy bear - 1903.
- First plastic Lego - 1949.
- Before 1950's - Toys made of wood and metal.
- Before 1950's - no batteries in toys to make them work.
- 1950's - Planes, boats and dolls were popular toys.
- 1950's - Toys made of plastic became popular.

What did children play with in the 1950's?

Vocabulary

Past	Something that happened before
Present	Something that is happening now
Chronology	Putting events in order of when they happened
Then	Something that happened before
Now	Things that are happening now
Change	Someone or something becomes different

History Skills

- I can identify the main differences between old and new toys?
- I can sequence events from my life on a timeline.
- I can classify toys from the 1950's and toys from now.

What should I already know?

- That kings and queens have ruled our country
- The queen now is Queen Elizabeth II

Why are Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth II important?

Key Vocabulary

monarch	A king or queen
Royal Family	Members of a royal family
Reign	The time of one monarch's rule
Coronation	The ceremony of crowning a king or queen
Family Tree	Looks at how people are related in a family

Monarchs of Great Britain 1837 - Present

Queen Victoria
1837 - 1901

King Edward VII (7th)
1901-1910

King George V (5th)
1910 - 1936

King George VI (6th)
1935-1952

Queen Elizabeth II (2nd)
1952 - present

Sticky Knowledge

- Our monarch now is Queen Elizabeth II.
- Our next king will be Prince Charles.
- Queen Victoria was Queen Elizabeth II's Great, Great Grandmother.
- Queen Elizabeth II and Queen Victoria both had coronations and used the same carriage to arrive.
- People could watch Queen Elizabeth II's coronation on TV but not Queen Victoria's.

History Skills

I can recognise the current Monarch and future Monarchs.
I can identify similarities and differences between the coronation of Elizabeth II and Queen Victoria.

Current and future Monarchs of Great Britain

Queen Elizabeth II

Prince Charles

Prince William

Prince George